Biography

Born in 1944 in Cass City, Michigan, David William Faupel (1944-) earned his B.A. at Central Bible College and Evangel College, Springfield, M.Div. at Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, KY and Ph.D. at the University of Birmingham, England under the direction of Walter J. Hollenweger. His thesis, "The Everlasting Gospel: the significance of eschatology in the development of Pentecostal thought" contributed to the understanding of the origins of Pentecostalism and to the later "Latter Rain" revival. The first part of that dissertation was published in Supplements to the Journal of Pentecostal Theology in 1996.

D. William Faupel was president of the Society for Pentecostal Studies in 1992 and its Executive Secretary from 1996 to 2000. He was the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officer for the Diocese of Lexington where he was also an associate Rector at St. John's, Versailles, KY, as well as a Librarian (1968-1975) and later Director of B.L. Fisher Library at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky (1976-2004). In 2004 he moved to Wesley Theological Seminary where he is director of the Library. Before joining the Episcopal Church in 1970, he was a licensed minister in the Assemblies of God.

Faupel's The American Pentecostal Movement (1972) was one of the first efforts to define the historiographical and bibliographical parameters of this burgeoning movement. This was reprinted in The Higher Christian Life: A Bibliographic Overview (1985) together with volumes in the same series by Donald Dayton (Holiness Movement) and David Bundy (Keswick). His other publications include many articles and reviews on topics and personalities within Pentecostalism and the Holiness movement; he has also made important contributions to research on theological librarianship.

Scope and Content

This archival collection contains correspondence, research notes, subject files, tracts, pamphlets and ephemera on the Pentecostal, Holiness and Keswick traditions, sermons, and reports. It also includes the personal biographical papers of David William Faupel. The Faupel book collection, separated to the Hubbard Library collections, contains many rare items documenting Pentecostalism in particular as well as America Evangelicalism in general.

Subjects:

- Episcopal Church
- Holiness -- Christianity
- Keswick movement
- Pentecostalism
